No. 302 BROADWAY

NEW YORK. March 30, 1925

Museum of Art,
New York City.

Dear Sirs:

We are the attorneys for the executors of the estate of Christian G. Moritz, late of the County of New York, and as such have several specimens of Phoenician ring money and also a coin of the Anam-Tay-Son rebellion, 1786 - 1791.

If you are interested in the purchase of these coins we would be pleased to send our representative with them, at a time fixed by you, or if you find that you have no use for them, may we ask that we be directed to some person or concern who might be interested in their purchase?

Thanking you in advance for your courtesy, we remain

Yours very truly,

Miller Bretzfelder & Boardman

Gentlemen:

As the Metropolitan Museum of Art has nothing much to do with coins, they forwarded your letter of March 30th addressed to them for our attention.

It is very doubtful if we should be interested in the coins about which you write, but if you care to bring them here on Monday or Tuesday morning next, we shall be glad to examine them.

Very truly yours,

Curator
